

NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS

CONTRIBUTORS will receive one proof in page, but it is assumed that the manuscript submitted is so finished that it requires no alteration if it is printed exactly. Corrections, other than of printers' errors, may be disallowed, or the contributor responsible may be charged for them.

The contributor of an Article or a Note receives a copy of the Number and twelve separate copies of his contribution, and may purchase additional offprints if he informs the Editors of his wishes in this respect when he returns his corrected proofs. The price of these additional copies depends upon the length of the paper. The contributor of a Review or Short Notice receives only a copy of the Number.

Communications which have been accepted and published become the property of the Journal, and permission to republish must be obtained from the Editors.

All communications from contributors are to be addressed either to the Rev. Dr. H. Chadwick, Christ Church, Oxford, or to the Rev. Dr. H. F. D. Sparks, Oriel College, Oxford. Books for review should be sent to the Rev. Dr. H. F. D. Sparks, c/o the Clarendon Press, Oxford, and all other correspondence to the publishers

JESUS THE LORD

Karl Heim

This book was first published in Germany as part of a series on Christian faith and contemporary thought. The author considers in the light of present-day experience such fundamental questions as the necessity for man's belief in God, the authority of Jesus Christ, original sin, and the nature of God's revelation in Christ.

CHRIST IN OUR PLACE

Paul van Buren

A study of the substitutionary character of Calvin's doctrine of reconciliation.

'... a good book and well deserves the praise with which Karl Barth recommends it in a foreword. Not only is it the first English book on Calvin's doctrine of the atonement, but it really penetrates into its subject and reaches the heart of the matter.'—British Weekly.
